

Business/Public Paula Dannenfeldt

Paula Dannenfeldt was appointed to the Commission on Environmental Justice & Sustainable Communities by Maryland Governor Larry Hogan in 2019. Prior to her retirement in September 2019, she served as Chief Operating Officer/Chief Administrative Officer of the National Association of Clean Water Agencies (NACWA), the nation's recognized leader in legislative, regulatory and legal clean water advocacy. In over three decades with NACWA, Paula worked closely with municipal clean water utilities in their efforts to provide strong, sustainable environmental services and ensure the resilience of their communities. Preceding her association with NACWA, Paula was the Director of Community Relations for the Pima County Regional Wastewater Reclamation Department in Tucson, Arizona and also served on the District Office staff of former Arizona Congressman Morris K. Udall. She has been a Maryland resident for over 30 years.
